Barbara Jolliff brings to ACI a wealth of experience in accounting and human resources management, including managing grants, developing budgets, forecasting and planning, preparing financial reports, and supervising HR operations. She joined ACI in 2011 after more than a decade managing the financial and human resources functions of The Inner Voice, a Chicago social service agency addressing the needs of homeless individuals. At ACI, Jolliff maintains the financial records associated with donor and member relations, ensures compliance with all donor reporting and grant requirements, oversees payroll and benefits for ACI staff, and coordinates documentation for ACI's annual audit.
